FACULTY AND STAFF

Among the new members of the faculty who will be welcomed at Sweet Briar for the coming year is Dr. Egbert Semman Wengert, who has been appointed as Associate Professor to fill the Carter Glass Chair of Government. Dr. Wengert is a graduate of the University of Michigan, having received the A.B., LL.B., and Ph.D. degrees from that institution, where he also served as instructor after his graduation. He comes to Sweet Briar from Wayne University in Detroit, where he has been a member of the faculty for several years. In addition to his work at the University, Dr. Wengert has also been a member of the staff of the Detroit Bureau of Governmental Research. As the holder of a law degree, as well as a Ph.D., Dr. Wengert's interests cover a wide field and include public law and finance as well as administration and government. At Wayne, Dr. Wengert has taught courses in constitutional law and American government. For use in his courses in government, Dr. Wengert is preparing an introductory text which he expects to publish in the near future.

The offerings in government for the coming year have been enlarged and changed to fit the particular emphases of Dr. Wengert's training and experience. Dr. Turner C. Cameron, Instructor in Government, will continue on the staff of the department this year, to assist Dr. Wengert in some of the government courses and to teach a new course, Economics 211, Business Organization and Banking, under the department of Economics and Sociology.

The resignations of Mr. Joseph Dexter Bennett and Mrs. Elizabeth Grinnan Jackson from the staff of the English Department have made two new appointments necessary in that department. Dr. Raymond W. Short has been appointed as an Assistant Professor of English to succeed Mr. Bennett. Dr. Short holds the A.B. and Ph.D. degrees from Cornell University and has taught at Cornell and at Yale. He comes to Sweet Briar from Yale where he has been since 1936.

Miss Mary Louise Pettis will join the Sweet Briar faculty as Instructor in English to succeed Mrs. Jackson, who resigned to do further graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania. Miss Pettis holds her A.B. from Goucher College and her Master's degree from the University of North Carolina, and has been teaching during the past year at Limestone College in South Carolina.

Three members of the faculty will be on sabbatical leave during 1941-42; Dr. Eugenie M. Morenus, Professor of Mathematics; Dr. Ewing C. Scott, Professor of Chemistry; and Mrs. Bertha P. Wailes, Assistant Professor of Sociology. Dr. Morenus will be on leave for the whole year and plans to study at the University of California. In her absence, Dr. Nancy Cole, Instructor of Mathematics, who acted as head of the department during Dr. Morenus' absence in 1934-35, will head the department again. Assisting her will be Miss Kathleen Ward, a graduate of Sweet Briar of the class of 1940, who will be a part-time instructor in mathematics and physics. Miss Ward spent last year studying at the University of Buffalo, where she also had some experience in practice and substitute teaching.

Dr. Scott will spend his sabbatical year in Brazil, where he and Mrs. Scott with their three children have been since June. He will be working on a students' guide to chemical theory while he seeks an insight into the teaching of science in South America. During his absence Miss Thyllis Williams, Instructor in Chemistry, will act as head of the department.

Mrs. Wailes will also be on leave for the entire year and expects to study at the University of Virginia, where she will do research and complete the work on her doctoral dissertation. During her absence, Dr. Collerohe Krassovsky has been secured as an Assistant Professor of Sociology. Dr. Krassovsky is a Russian-born American citizen who has lived in this country since the Russian revolution. She received her Bachelor's degree with Phi Beta Kappa honors at the University of Michigan and later took her Master's and Doctor's degrees from that University. Before coming to this country she studied in Berlin and at the Sorbonne in Paris. She has also served as Administrative and Technical Supervisor of Special Education of Crippled Children, Social Service Department, University Hospital, University of Michigan, from 1929 through 1934. Since February 1940 she has been teaching social research at the Richmond School of Social Work of the College of William and Mary. She had an appointment for the summer session at the University of Virginia before taking up her duties at Sweet Briar.

Sweet Briar will welcome back this year three members of the faculty who have been on sabbatical leave, engaged in study and special research projects. Dr. Carl Y. Connor, Professor of English, has prepared for publication his book on George Moore. Mr. Salvatore C. Mangiafico, Assistant Professor of Romance Languages, spent the year at Columbia University working on his doctor's degree. Dr. Gertrude Malz, Assistant Professor of Greek and Latin, was in Philadelphia, New York and Washington, studying and editing certain of the Byzantine Papyri of Dioscorus of Aphrodite in Egypt.

Dr. Cecile B. Finley has been appointed to a part-time instructorship in Psychology for the coming year. Mrs. Finley is well known to all of us as she substituted in this same department during the year 1939-40 and in the first semester of 1940-41.

Mrs. Bernice D. Lill, the Registrar at Sweet Briar since 1928, will be on leave for several months during the first semester and will spend the time studying and traveling in South America, where she has been since July. In her absence Miss Frances Turnbull, a graduate of Vassar College, has been secured to assist in the office. For nine years Miss Turnbull was executive secretary to the head of the Madeira School in Washington. She has also had experience teaching French in private schools. Miss Jeanette Boone, Assistant Registrar, will be in charge of the office during the absence of Mrs. Lill.

To fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Mary Dix Martindale, Mrs. Rebecca C. Kerr of Lynchburg, Virginia, has come as Supervisor of Halls of Residence. Mrs. Kerr was formerly hostess and buyer for the Penn-Daw Hotel at Alexandria, Virginia. She took up her duties at Sweet Briar on August first.

A number of changes will take place in the staff of the Mary Helen Cochran Library this year. Miss Virginia Gott, Assistant in the Library, resigned during the summer to be married and her place is being filled by Mrs. Kate Smith Pyron. Mrs. Pyron is a graduate of Guilford College and holds both an A.M. in English and a B.S. in Library Science from the University of North Carolina. She has done graduate work at Bryn Mawr and has taught at Guilford College and at Salem College.

Miss Gertrude Prior, who has been an office assistant in the Library for the past two years, has resigned, and Mrs. Ewing C. Scott, who has served as part-time assistant for a number of years, will not be available. In their places will come two graduates of the class of 1941, Miss Alice McBee and Miss Doris Huner, who plan to pursue library work as a career and who will receive training from the Librarian.

Miss Martha Clark, Assistant in Biology, has resigned to continue her graduate work and Miss Gertrude Prior will take her place. Miss Prior has been doing graduate work in Botany at Cornell University this summer.

Following the resignation of Miss Mary Marks, Secretary to the Alumnae Secretary, Miss Nathalie Crowe of West Roxbury, Massachusetts, will fill the vacancy in the Alumnae office. She holds the A.B. degree from Skidmore College and is a graduate of the Katharine Gibbs School in Boston. She has had one year's experience in secretarial work.
